DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the amendment of the applicant, filed on 2/25/05.

Claims 7 and 18 are presented.

Election/Restrictions

2. The restriction requirement has been withdrawn because the amended claim 18, now, falls within the same group as claim 7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention; and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 7 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The specification, as shown in the remarks filed 5/19/04, disclose a written representation of the claimed subject matter. The examiner discloses the specification does not enable how the conversation threads are halted, how they are sent to another processor, or how they are resumed in order for one of ordinary skill in the art to create the claimed subject matter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

5. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

6. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claim discloses "a media". A media is not tangibly limited to a product. Therefore, claim 18 is not tangibly embodied.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

8. Claims 7 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sudo, USPN 5,692,192.
9. Regarding claims 7 and 18, Sudo discloses a message processing method and media for execution by a message processor, comprising:
- providing, in the message processor, a plurality of conversation threads and a conversation part object including a conversation thread part that is capable of controlling the plurality of conversation threads [ie. user-level threads, Sudo, col. 7, line 61 – col. 8, line 11];

halting the plurality of conversation threads [ie. stopping thread, Sudo, col. 8, lines 1-11];

sending the conversation part object through a network from the message process to another place in another message processor and resuming the plurality of conversation threads at another message processor [ie. transfer thread to another node and resume, Sudo, col. 8, lines 12-36].

10. Claims 7 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bhanot et al. ("Bhanot"), USPN 5,796,934.

11. Regarding claims 7 and 18, Bhanot discloses a message processing method and media for execution by a message processor, comprising:

providing, in the message processor, a plurality of conversation threads and a conversation part object including a conversation thread part that is capable of controlling the plurality of conversation threads [ie. transaction thread, Bhanot, col. 2, lines 38-61 and col. 3, lines 54-66];

halting the plurality of conversation threads [ie. stopping thread, Bhanot, col. 4, lines 5-26];

sending the conversation part object through a network from the message process to another place in another message processor and resuming the plurality of conversation threads at another message processor [ie. restart transaction on backup server, Bhanot, col. 5, lines 27-52].

Response to Arguments

12. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 7 and 18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
